From Your Interim Pastor :

Having completed the travels I had scheduled prior to coming to Good Shepherd, I'll finally be here several weeks in a row. With Sundays and mid-week services we'll settle into a routine. During Lent I will plan to be at the church on Thursdays as well as Sundays. Please feel free to contact me at other times. Email is usually most effective at prcraig@aol.com but my cell is 843-288-1500 for emergencies.

The midweek theme your Worship Committee chose is the "Seven Deadly Sins". Using the book, "Whatever Became of Sin", we'll explore the challenges to living faithfully and the seductive temptations that lead us away from God. We'll try to have some fun with our topics along the way. We'll also be learning parts of a new liturgy, Holden Evening Prayer. It's got some beautiful musical parts which I think you'll really love. Plan to come Thursdays and have some soup!

The rest of the church schedule is also heating up. We'll be doing confirmation classes once a month with a number of teens and some eager adults. We'll be using the book, "Baptized, We Live (Lutheranism as a Way of Life)" by Daniel Erlander along with other materials. We'll also be offering First Communion class on April 1st (no fooling) as part of Wonderful Wednesdays. There is no magical age that's right for first communion. I encourage parents to talk with their children----when they express an interest is when it's probably the right time. Remember the first disciples didn't fully understand what was going on at the last supper. Holy Communion is more about being in a relationship with God----knowing God's love for us through this tangible meal. I'm happy to talk with any of you that are wondering if now is the right time. Sign up will be through Wonderful Wednesdays.

I'd like to commend you for the many invitations you've extended to friends to come (or come back) to Good Shepherd. We've got some newer participants in worship. Your challenge is to get to know those who visit and invite them into the activities of the community. It's always easy to hang out with friends, but make a point to introduce yourself to someone you don't know. From now to Easter is prime time for connecting with those who may be new to Good Shepherd. Your welcome smile is important!

One last note----the choir I have sung in the past 10 years at Lord of Life Lutheran in Bluffton has a tradition of doing a Cantata every Advent and Lent. They have agreed to bring this year's musical, "Come Touch the Robe" to Good Shepherd on March 29th at 5pm. This is a beautiful and moving story in word and song of how various people encountered Jesus by coming into contact with his robe. It will be about 45 minutes in length so even with light refreshments after everyone will get home before dark. I hope you will plan to come out and be truly blessed by this beautiful story. And yes, I will be among the singers!

Pastor Craig

This is not a budgeted item, but you can help offset the $4,500 cost of Day Camp by placing loose offering in the offering plate, or by designating your gift for "Lutheroad" on your offering envelope.

As our young people are learning about Jesus' life and teachings, the adult class of our Wonderful Wednesday program has been studying "Honoring Our Neighbor's Faith" over the past six weeks. Thus far we have studied the AME, Assemblies of God, Baptist and Mennonite Churches. Our class is made up of folks from various faith backgrounds including Baptist, Methodist, Nazarene and Lutheran. All are welcomed to join us on Wednesday evening as we continue learning about our neighbor's faith. Classes begin about 5:45 p.m.

**Note: If you are unable to serve during your month, please be responsible and ask someone to substitute for you.

Daylight Savings Time :

“Will Daylight Savings Time be Eliminated?”

What President Trump is arguing for is permanent daylight saving time, essentially eliminating the "fall back" of clocks in November. This would mean the United States stays on summer hours all year round. Some states, including Hawaii and most of Arizona, do not observe daylight saving time at all. ## A Special Musical Event at GSLC (Sunday, March 29th, 5 pm)

Encounters with the Healer, the Servant, the Lord of Easter, Unique in concept, soaring in spirit, and with music, text, and narration by Pepper Choplin, “Come Touch the Robe” allows us to encounter the Christ of healing, glory, authority, humility, and victory. This work uses the simple garment that Jesus wore as a thematic device to recount the interaction of those who were with Him during His last days on Earth. To a suffering woman, His robe conveyed divine healing. On the mountaintop, the robe shone and filled the disciples' eyes with His glory and authority. When Jesus laid His garment aside in the upper room, it displayed His humility as a servant. At the tomb, the grave clothes He left behind help us experience His resurrection and the victory over death. It is through these personal, touching moments that our hearts are fully prepared to meet Jesus in an intimate way, allowing us to experience the healing, the glory, and the power of Christ, and rejoice in the stirring celebration of the resurrection of the Lamb of God.

The choir of Lord of Life Lutheran Church of Bluffton brings us this special Lenten opportunity. Invite your friends and neighbors to this special treat!

Financial Corner:

January was a good month, financially, with General Fund gifts being greater than expenses. (I don't know much about accounting, but that has to be the first rule for making an accountant happy.) "Gifts greater than Expenses" also allows us to build some cushion in our checking account balance, which is probably the second thing that makes an accountant happy. ☺

Our Wallace Fund continues to grow as we pay off the debt of the fellowship hall roof. We will need to continue growing this fund in order to complete some of the repairs needed to the parsonage as well as our other facilities.

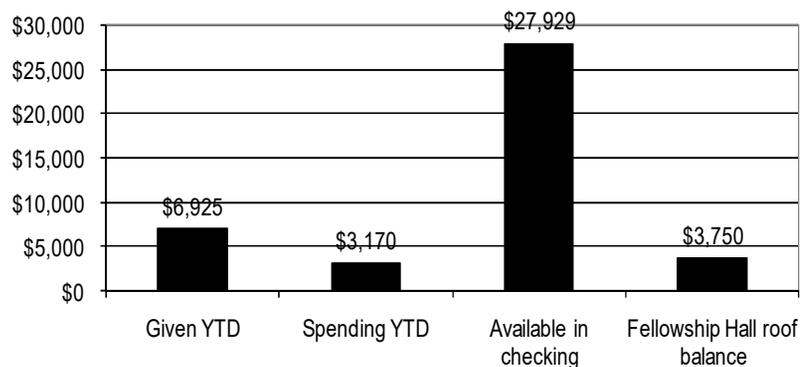

Until next month, I hope to see you in church.

Kevin
