From Your Interim Pastor :

As I'm writing this on a late July day, I'm looking out on multicolored streamers hanging from the portico ceiling. It's really quite festive. I hope they'll survive until Sunday so that more of you get to see them. Sometimes a little freshness is fun. I worry sometimes that the routine of church life---Sunday worship and our various weekday events just gets boring. When I came as interim pastor in November 2019, typically an interim pastor doesn't change a lot. Our task is to help you put to rest whatever good or ill feelings you had about the previous pastor and to move toward anticipating that next chapter.

For Good Shepherd that first stage was going to take a bit of time, and yet all too soon, Covid hit and we entered a new and uncharted territory. You'll recall we worshipped online with St. John's in Beaufort for a while as they were more prepared for online worship. Soon we got up and running with Zoom and shortly after that with outdoor worship. When we finally did move indoors, it was with all sorts of protocols----some of which we're still following today.

Along the way, we've worked through the various steps of interim----making a Sustainability Assessment, taking a Congregational Vitality Survey, creating a Ministry Site Profile. All of this led us to conclude that it was no longer realistic or financially feasible to call a full-time pastor. This put us in even more challenging territory. The South Carolina Synod (and much of the ELCA) has not promoted the idea of part time pastors. We have few models. Most younger pastors aren't interested in being bi-vocational. In the upper Midwest we used many young retirees for part time work, but most of those in South Carolina get utilized as interim pastors. Sharing a pastor with another church nearby becomes an option, but only if there is mission compatibility and practical details can be agreed to.

Your call committee has looked at a couple of options over the past year, but deemed them not appropriate. We have a few other active options and we eagerly hopeful for what might develop in the weeks ahead. For now, we are in that routine----but is it boring? It isn't if you watched the excitement and energy of those Lutheroad campers this week! And our mission continues to support one another in our congregation as well as serving our community. Those 50 families that show up every 2 weeks for the food pantry will tell you that they appreciate what Good Shepherd does for them.

Being a part of the Good Shepherd community is not a sprint, but a marathon of praising God and serving in God's name. We've settled into a pattern where I continue to be your primary interim, but you also have one or two Sundays a month with some really fine visiting pastors. That's not likely to change for the next months----but one of these days, things could be different in a hurry. Let's keep that in our prayers. It's like those Israelites wandering in the desert and all the waiting for the Messiah-----one day it was all different-----for now, patience!

Property Committee update

Our Parsonage Project continues to go well. Since our last newsletter, interior painting has been completed, cabinet doors hung, blinds hung, three ceiling fans installed, numerous light fixtures installed, and the deck painted.

Thus far, we have spent, or have committed to spend, approximately $11,300 for the parsonage project. Thus far we have collected about $2,000 for the project, leaving a current balance of about $9,300. If you'd like to support the parsonage repair project, you can do so by giving to the "Maintenance Fund."

Sunshine News :

If you would like to place someone on the prayer list that is printed in the bulletin, please fill out a prayer request form, found in the narthex, and drop it in the offering plate or give it to Diane Wicker. The prayer list is updated every three months. You may also email your prayer requests to thewickers@lowcountry.com.

Choir is on break and will return in September.

On Sunday, August 7, we will recognize our Doscher/ Fellers scholars during the worship service. Our scholars are Haleigh Gamble, who is attending Charleston Southern, and Matt Ferris, who is attending Trident Tech.

Our loose and special designated offering for August will support our Social Ministry Fund. At Good Shepherd, the Social Ministry program includes the Food Pantry as well as assistance for utility bills, prescription medication, etc. This is not a budgeted item, but you can help by placing loose offering in the offering plate, or by designating your gift for “Social Ministry” on your offering envelope.

The sanctuary candles for the month of August are given to the glory of God by Cheryl Clayton in honor of her mother, JoAnn Crissman, and her sisters, Sandi and Shelly.

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who came out in support of the Red Cross blood drive held Monday, July 11, at Good Shepherd. A total of 49 units was collected. The next blood drive at Good Shepherd will be Monday, September 12, 2022, from 1:00 pm to 7:00 pm. Contact the Red Cross for an appointment.

Thank you to everyone who came out in support of the Lutheroad Day Camp held the week of July 18-22 at Good Shepherd. We had 12 great campers, 3 awesome counselors, and lots of wonderful volunteers who came out through the week for fun, food and fellowship.

LMM:

The Lutheran Men in Mission met on July 10th. Eight were in attendance and Bob and Charles provided a delicious breakfast. Doug L. provided an interesting discussion about the 12 disciples and how little we know about most of them, but also said that they can provide a model for our discipleship which often is anonymous too.

Many thanks to all those who helped repair a deck and ramp for shut-in members of our congregation and to all those who have donated a lot of their time, effort, and resources on the parsonage, particularly Mr. Sal and Mr. Kevin. We will be holding our annual fish fry in late October - early November date TBD!

Financial Corner

I hope your summer is going well thus far. There's not a lot to report regarding the month of June. Boring financial reports are usually good because they indicate things are running within budget, and gifts are exceeding expenses.

You should have already received your mid-year financial statement from our Recording Secretary, Doug Brinson. If you see any errors in how we have recorded your gifts to the church for the first six months of the year, please contact Doug.

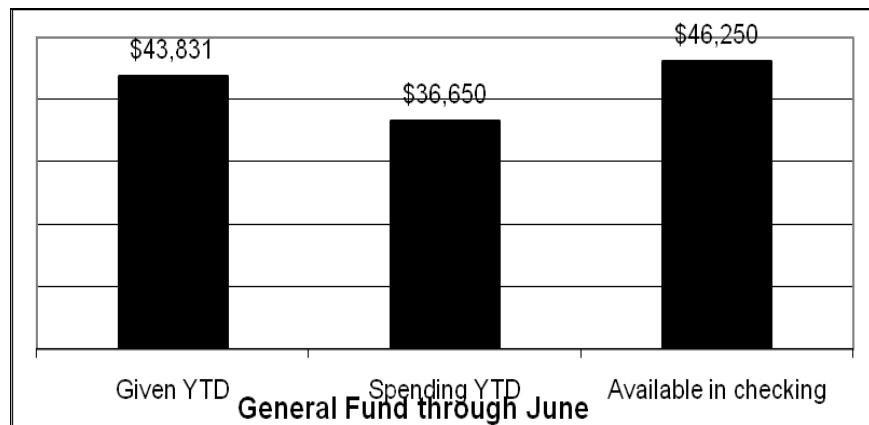

As always, if you have questions concerning the finances of Good Shepherd, please give me a call. And, I hope to see you in person or on-line for church.

Kevin
