From Your Pastor :

This past week I met via Zoom with the other interim pastors from the South Carolina Synod. After hearing some of their stories and some of the challenges our bishop's office is facing, I'm so thankful to be serving at Good Shepherd! The feisty political climate of the past several years has spilled over into many other aspects of everyday life. People are less civil with one another. Congregations with older membership profiles tend to be more conservative than their younger pastors. In South Carolina it has led to many difficult church relationships. How sad it is that people cannot listen to others with differing perspectives, learn from one another, and grow to appreciate the diversity that God has given us. Respect seems a lost art. In one congregation the council was even bullying their retired interim pastor---a very gracious and gentle man totally undeserving such treatment. I don't expect a church community to be devoid of differing opinions---that is to be expected, and even welcomed. But as people of the gospel, we want to act toward one another as if Jesus were in our midst (which, by the way, he is!). I have no doubt that the current political and social climate will evolve as it always does. Again, I am ever so grateful that a spirit of kindness and care lives in this congregation.

Elsewhere in this newsletter my wife has offered her own note of thanks, but I want to express my deep appreciation for your celebration of my 50th ordination anniversary in July. I surprised myself with getting pretty emotional in reflecting on those years and my commitment to the highest of professional standards in this calling. I believe my sermon for that day is posted on the church website if you didn't get the chance to hear it. The dinner celebration was wonderful and I thank everyone who made the effort to participate.

In August we'll have some additional substitutes as I spend two weeks out in the mountains of Colorado. At almost 9,000 feet we'll enjoy the cool evenings and low humidity. I've served as the president of the board for a timeshare condo association for ten years now, so this is a working vacation as we inspect all the units, note needed repairs, plan refurbishments, and hold an annual meeting. We'll probably have a number of fresh trout meals along the way and enjoy great board member friends in this work.

For Good Shepherd, August is a quieter month, though we'll be gearing up for fall and school will start back already mid-month. Your call committee is eagerly waiting for names from the synod and will be doing some interview preparation. The women are on break but the men will be meeting as usual. Thanks to the men's group for replenishing the food pantry with funds from their BBQ. And the food pantry will continue to support the needy in our community. Enjoy those last days of summer and remember----the church is air conditioned and here every week!

Pastor Craig

Property & Grounds

After a couple of weeks of installation and setup, we launched the new audio/streaming system on July 23rd. We are now streaming our services on Facebook each Sunday, and other times when we meet in the sanctuary for worship. Over the next few weeks, we will be continuing to tune the system and train our volunteers who will run the equipment. We hope you've had time to view the service on Facebook, with or without an account. The new system also incorporates listening assist devices for those who have trouble hearing the speakers in the sanctuary. Our thanks to Mr. Scott Grooms for designing the system and overseeing our installation and to our volunteers who helped with the installation and who operate the system each Sunday. If you have any questions regarding the system, please contact Kevin Wicker or Rob Rusnak. And, if you'd like to help reimburse our Wallace Fund for the cost of the system, earmark your gift for "Sound System."

Sunshine News :

A Seminary Student Comes to Good Shepherd. On August 6th Good Shepherd will host first year seminarian Jace Martinez. Jace grew up Lutheran in Owatonna, MN before relocating to Texas with his family in his late teens. He received his associate degree in the arts from Riverland Community College in Austin, MN, a second associate degree from Cochise College in Douglas, AZ, and his BA from Texas State University, San Marcos, TX. Jace served in the Army from 2016-22, including tours in the Middle East. He began his training at Lutheran Southern Seminary in Columbia in January of this year. Jace is married to Julia Madeline Martinez, a Forensic Science Laboratory Assistant. Pastor Craig was impressed with Jace's call story which he heard as a member of the South Carolina Synod Candidacy Committee and is eager for Good Shepherd to welcome him and hear his story.

Financial Corner

This month we are looking at our financials for the first half of 2023. Through the first half of the year, we have spent about 44% of our Spending Plan for Ministry for the year. With the exception of a couple of unexpected maintenance items and property insurance cost increases, our expenses are following the plan nicely.

Again, we have multiple ways of giving here at Good Shepherd. There is the act of placing your gifts in the offering plate at worship, in the secure drop box on the Fellowship Hall door, or electronic giving through the Tithely program that you can access through our website.

As always, if you have questions concerning the finances of Good Shepherd, please give me a call. And, I hope to see you in person or on-line for church.

Kevin

A Word of Thanks

What a special group of people you are! We have so enjoyed getting to know each of you and to walk in tandem with you as you have searched God's will (and your ability) to continue to serve the Lutheran community at Good Shepherd. We have experienced your generosity, your love, your concern for our well-being and your acceptance of our presence with you.

A standing ovation after a sermon is almost unheard of! Brings me to tears just thinking of it. The dinner you served on July 9th in celebration of Craig's 50th anniversary of ordination was amazing and displayed your many talented cooks. Our friends and daughter were welcomed to share in the feast and felt included.

When it is time for us to share our final goodbyes as you welcome a new pastor, I am already certain that I'll be a teary mess and I guess suspect Craig won't be far behind, given his emotion at last Sunday's sermon. You are truly God's chosen, eager to welcome, to care and to partner and we are truly blessed to have shared this time with you.

Georgia Boehlke

Thank you to everyone who came out in support of the recent blood drive held here in July at Good Shepherd. A total of 45 units of blood were collected. The next blood drive here at Good Shepherd will be Monday, September 11, 2023.
